

Acceptable Use and External-Facing Services Policy

1. Scope

- A. This Acceptable Use and External Facing Services Policy ("Policy") applies to customers' use of all services offered by Salesforce, Inc. or its affiliates ("Salesforce"). The terms of the Artificial Intelligence Acceptable Use Policy at <https://www.salesforce.com/company/legal/agreements/> posted as of its effective date are hereby incorporated by reference. Capitalized terms used below but not defined in this policy have the meaning set forth in the Main Services Agreement ("MSA").
- B. With respect to Slack Services, if we believe a customer or its users are engaging in or encouraging illegal activity, or deliberately or repeatedly presents a credible risk of harm, or encourages harm, to other users, the Services or any third parties, we may suspend or terminate your Slack access. Slack is not available for consumer purposes, as Slack is intended for use by businesses and organizations.

2. Last Updated

- A. July 08, 2025

3. Changes to Policy

- A. Salesforce may change this Policy by posting an updated version of the Policy at www.salesforce.com and such updates will be effective upon posting.

4. Violations

- A. A customer's violation of this Policy will be considered a material breach of the MSA and/or other agreement governing the customer's use of the services.

5. Prohibited Material

- A. Customers may not, and may not allow any third party, including its users, to use services to create, send, upload, display, store, process, or transmit, or permit use of services to create, send, upload, display, store, process, or transmit:
  - I. Material that infringes or misappropriates a third party's intellectual property or proprietary rights;
  - II. Hate-related material, and/or material advocating discrimination against individuals or groups;
  - III. Material advocating or advancing violent causes, including terrorism or violent extremism;

6. Prohibited Actions

A. Customers may not use a service to, nor allow its users or any third party to use a service to:

- I. Generate or facilitate unsolicited commercial email (spam). Such prohibited activity includes, but is not limited to:
  - a. Sending communications or email in violation of the CAN-SPAM Act or any other applicable anti-spam law or regulation;
  - b. Imitating or impersonating Salesforce, another person or his, her, or its email address, or creating false accounts for the purpose of sending spam;
  - c. Mining data or harvesting any web property (including any External-Facing Service) to find email addresses or other user account information;
  - d. Sending unauthorized mail via open, third-party servers;
  - e. Sending email to users who have requested to be removed from a mailing list;
  - f. Selling to, exchanging with, sharing with, or distributing to a third party personal information, including the email addresses of any person without such person's knowing and continued consent to such disclosure; or
  - g. Sending unsolicited emails to significant numbers of email addresses belonging to individuals and/or entities with whom you have no preexisting relationship;
- II. Create, send, upload, display, store, process, or transmit unlawful, defamatory, harassing, abusive, fraudulent, infringing, obscene, excessively profane, hateful, violent, or otherwise objectionable material nor use the services to send, display, or transmit sexually explicit material;
- III. Create, send, upload, display, store, process, or transmit highly deceptive manipulated or synthetic digital media that is fabricated or false but presented as authentic or fact based and intended to deliberately sway audiences towards a specific interest or agenda, including, but not limited to, deepfakes;
- IV. Promote, support, or facilitate unlawful, hateful, discriminatory, or violent causes, including terrorism or violent extremism;
- V. Intentionally distribute viruses, worms, defects, Trojan horses, corrupted files, hoaxes, or any other items of a destructive or deceptive nature;
- VI. Conduct or forward multi-level marketing, such as pyramid schemes and the like;
- VII. Generate or facilitate calls, SMS, MMS, other text messages push notifications, or other uninvited communications in violation of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, the Do-Not-Call Implementation Act, or any other applicable law including anti-spam, telemarketing, robocalling, caller ID spoofing, or telephone consumer protection laws or regulations;
- VIII. Use the services in any manner that violates any applicable industry standards, third-party policies, or requirements that Salesforce may communicate to its users, including all of the applicable guidelines published by the CTIA, the Mobile Marketing Association, the Self-Regulatory Principles as directed by the Digital Advertising Alliance and the Network Advertising Initiative, or any other generally accepted industry associations, carrier guidelines, or other industry standards;

- IX. Create, send, upload, display, store, process, or transmit material or otherwise use the Services in a way that may be harmful to minors including, but not limited to, for any purposes related to child exploitation or abuse, such as real or artificial Child Sexual Abuse Material (CSAM);
- X. Illegally send, upload, display, store, process, or transmit another's intellectual property or other proprietary information without such owner's or licensor's permission;

7. U.S. Digital Millennium Copyright Act or Similar Statutory Obligations

- A. To the extent a customer uses the services for hosting, advertising, sending electronic messages, or for the creation and hosting of, or for posting material on, websites, each customer must:
  - I. Comply with any notices received under Title II of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act of 1998 (Section 512 of the U.S. Copyright Act) or similar statute in other countries (the “DMCA”);
  - II. Set up a process to expeditiously respond to notices of alleged infringement that comply with the DMCA and to implement a DMCA-compliant repeat infringers policy;
  - III. Publicly display a description of its notice and takedown process under the DMCA on its instance of the services; and
  - IV. Comply with such processes, policy(ies), and description.
- B. It is Salesforce’s policy to respond expeditiously to valid notices of claimed copyright infringement compliant with the DMCA. In appropriate circumstances, Salesforce will terminate the accounts of customers who Salesforce suspects to be repeatedly or blatantly infringing copyrights.
- C. If Salesforce receives a notice alleging that material on a customer’s instance of a service infringes another party’s intellectual property, Salesforce may disable that customer’s instance of the service or remove the allegedly infringing material. If Salesforce receives more than one such notice for the same customer, Salesforce reserves the right to immediately terminate such customer’s subscriptions to the services as deemed necessary by Salesforce to ensure continued protection under the safe harbor provisions under the DMCA or to prevent violations of other applicable laws or third parties’ rights.
